Privacy Policy

The Consortium for Independent Journalism, Inc., which operates Consortiumnews.com, places a premium on user privacy and it is our policy to respect your privacy. We limit any collection of information only to what is typical for operating a web site.

Like most website operators, Consortiumnews collects non-personally-identifying information of the sort that web browsers and servers typically make available, such as the browser type, language preference, referring site, and the date and time of each visitor request. Consortiumnews' purpose in collecting non-personally identifying information is to better understand how Consortiumnews' visitors use its website. We do not sell or share any user information to third parties.
